Pursuant to the Michigan Supreme Court's November 15, 2006 remand order, this Court orders, on its own motion, that the parties shall provide supplemental briefing on the issues identified by the Supreme Court, to wit: (1) whether the trial court correctly determined that the defense expert's testimony would have been admissible without the hearsay and opinion evidence cited in the trial court opinion; and (2) whether trial counsel's failure to object to testimony he believed necessary for the admission of the defense expert's opinion deprived the defendant of assistance of counsel. The supplemental briefs shall be limited to ten pages, exclusive of tables, indexes, and appendices, and must include a table of contents and an index of authorities. Both parties' briefs are due simultaneously within 21 days of the Clerk's certification of this order. Oral argument is denied at this time, but may be ordered after review of the parties' supplemental briefs or upon motion filed by a party.
